

AMERICAN MONTESSORI SOCIETY
BLACK LIVES MATTER

WHAT'S NEXT FOR YOU?

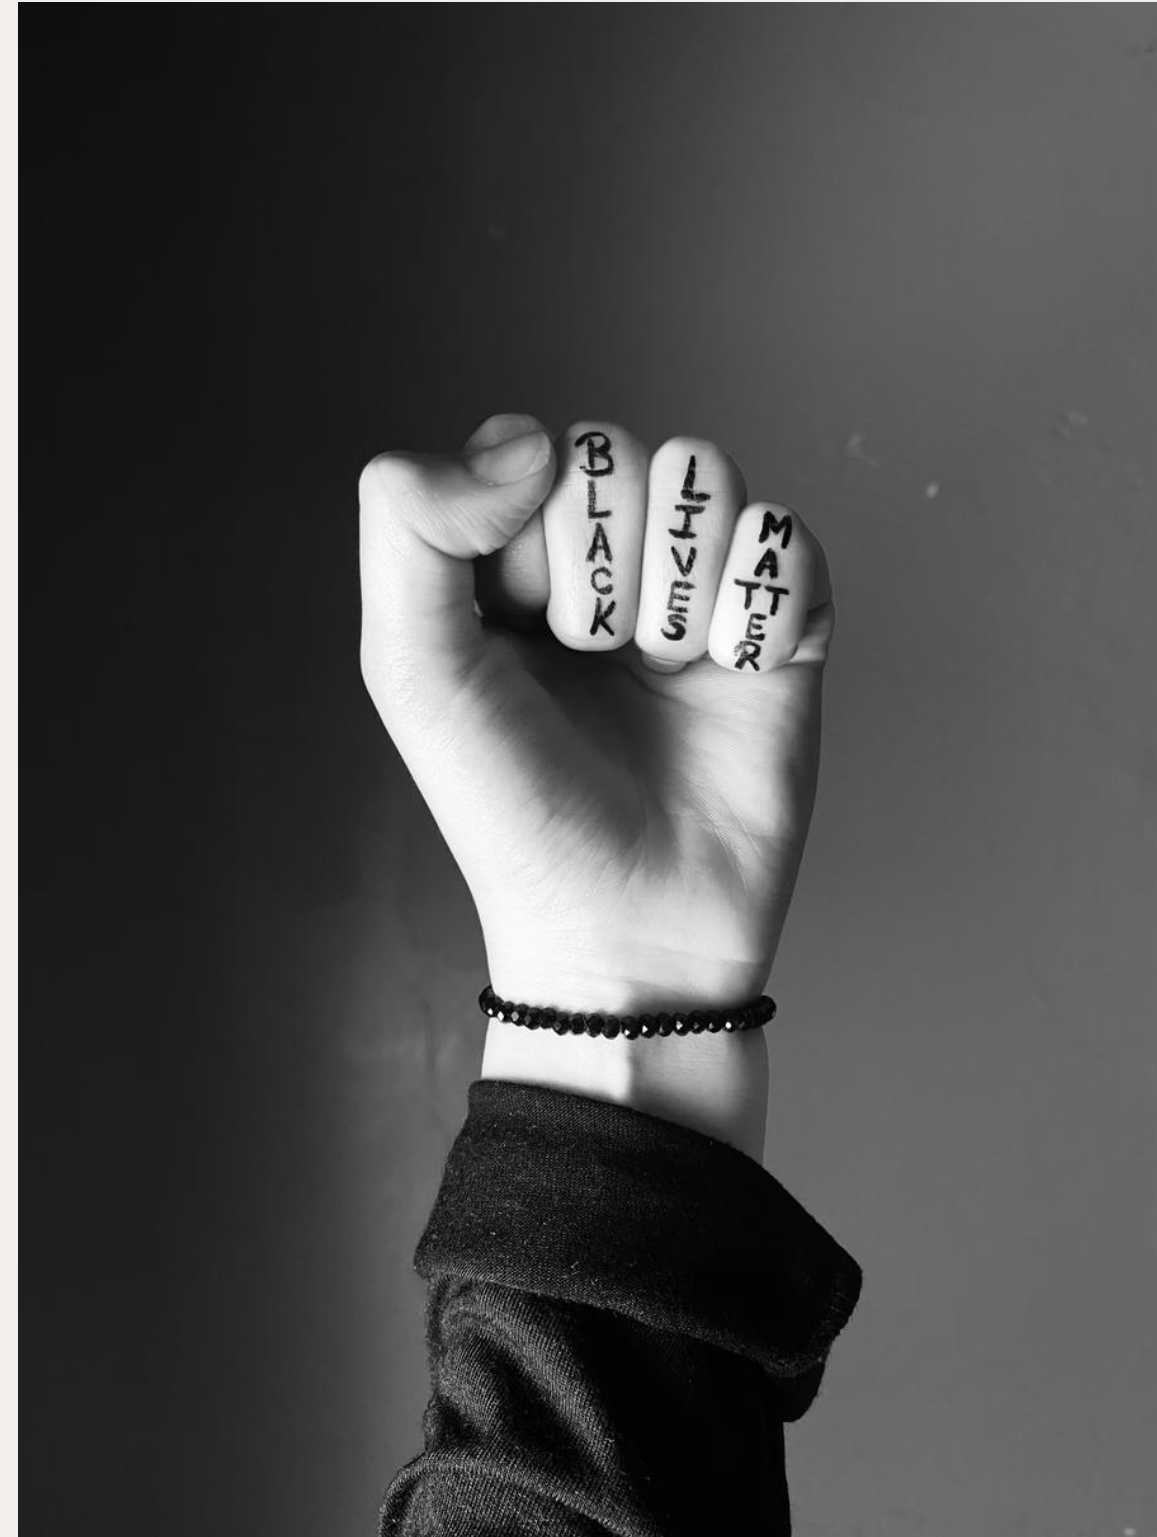

Presented by Munir Shivji, Executive Director

ACTION ITEM #1

DON'T JUST TALK THE TALK

Step up and walk the walk.

ACTION ITEM #2

SUPPORT ORGANIZATIONAL CHANGE

Set diversity, equity, and inclusion goals for your school or teacher education program – and deadlines for achieving them.

This might mean reconsidering your hiring, enrollment, and/or scholarship practices.

ACTION ITEM #3

VOLUNTEER YOUR TIME AND ENERGY

There are countless organizations working tirelessly to bring about change in the Montessori community. How can you support their efforts?

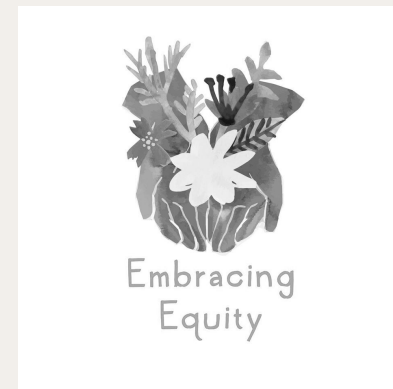

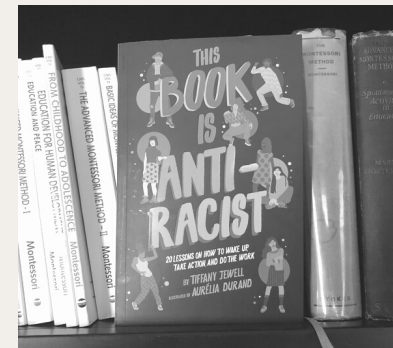

ACTION ITEM #4

CONTINUE TO SELF-EDUCATE

It is important to read, watch, and listen.

Research the backgrounds of your sources. Be smart about selecting them and bringing critical thinking to what they say.

MONTESSORI FOR SOCIAL JUSTICE

MSJ amplifies the voices of the global majority, and cultivates partnerships to liberate the human potential.

TIFFANY JEWELL

Credentialed Montessori teacher and author,
This Book Is Anti-Racist

EMBRACING EQUITY

A social change agency dedicated to centering racial justice in education through racial and ethnic identity development, critical consciousness, and critical action.

DR. DERRICK GAY

AMS Diversity, Equity, & Inclusion consultant

Injustice anywhere is a threat to justice everywhere.

ACTION ITEM #5

HAVE DIFFICULT CONVERSATIONS

Learning how to be a helpful ally requires that you have difficult conversations with your colleagues of color. Confronting our own ignorance is a first step toward meaningful change.

SUPPORT & ADVOCACY

We encourage you to help support an action-oriented, anti-racist organization or community. If you need help finding one, here are some that might be of interest.
