Food and Nutrition

- All claims for SFSP program for 2020 have been submitted and approved
- We amended our SFSP application to reflect an end date of April 30, 2021
- Food suppliers are experiencing a number of issues, resulting in unanticipated menu changes, e.g. exhausted inventory, COVID related staffing shortages, freezing food
- Families receiving free or reduced lunch will receive a new P-EBT card by 3/31/21
 - *Families only need to apply for educational benefits to receive P-EBT card
 - *MDE extracts data from P-EBT portal maintained by the school
 - *Students who were majority hybrid receive $75; majority distance receive $130
