About the Workshop

This "Create a Character" workshop invites kids to unleash their imagination and bring unique characters to life through illustration. Through guided exercises and creative prompts, attendees will learn to draw characters with distinct personalities. We'll explore facial structure, how to incorporate unique features, and develop their character to enhance storytelling skills.

About the Instructor

Aimee Kuiper is an author and illustrator from the suburban wilds of Savage, MN. Her personal practice has fueled a passion to make art accessible to all ages, abilities, and communities. Art is for everyone!
