

Hello Winona-Area Families! If you have a child in kindergarten or younger, we'd love to meet you at Goodview Elementary next week (9/8-9/12)! Winona ECCE is for all families, not just for those attending WAPS. If you're looking for a great way to build your family's community in Winona, please come see us during one or all of these classes next week (for free)! Find the fit that works for you! Snacks are provided for children. All children from birth through kindergarten are welcome. Children who are not yet one and walking stay with parents during our time together. There's no need to register or sign up for these classes between 9/8 and 9/12, but please reach out to Jen or Lynnea if you have any questions! Bring your friends!

507-494-0913

lynnea.pfohl@winona.k12.mn.us

<https://ec.winonaschools.org/ecfe>

jennifer.slinkman@winona.k12.mn.us

Classes With Separate Parent Discussion:

Parents, children, and teachers play together for the first half hour, and then go into separate rooms for the remaining time. Children play, create, move, and explore with an early childhood teacher. Parents connect in a group with a planned discussion facilitated by a parent educator.

Monday, September 8th, 5:00 - 7:00 PM

Parent discussion will center on effective discipline strategies.

Wednesday, September 10th, 4:30 - 6:30 PM

Parent discussion will center on nurturing resilience in a trauma-informed space.

Thursday, September 11th, 8:00 - 10:00 AM

Parent discussion will center on effective discipline strategies.

Class Without Separation Time:

Friday, September 12th, 9:00 - 10:30 AM

Parents, children, and teachers spend this entire class time together. Children get to play and explore in our beautiful early childhood classroom like usual, but also have an opportunity to create a special art project alongside their parents, inspired by a story we read together in class.

Hello Winona-Area Families! If you have a child in kindergarten or younger, we'd love to meet you at Goodview Elementary next week (9/8-9/12)! Winona ECFE is for all families, not just for those attending WAPS. If you're looking for a great way to build your family's community in Winona, please come see us during one or all of these classes next week (for free)! Find the fit that works for you! Snacks are provided for children. All children from birth through kindergarten are welcome. Children who are not yet one and walking stay with parents during our time together. There's no need to register or sign up for these classes between 9/8 and 9/12, but please reach out to Jen or Lynnea if you have any questions! Bring your friends!

507-494-0913

lynnea.pfohl@winona.k12.mn.us
<https://ec.winonaschools.org/ecfe>
jennifer.slinkman@winona.k12.mn.us

Classes With Separate Parent Discussion:

Parents, children, and teachers play together for the first half hour, and then go into separate rooms for the remaining time. Children play, create, move, and explore with an early childhood teacher. Parents connect in a group with a planned discussion facilitated by a parent educator.

Monday, September 8th, 5:00 - 7:00 PM

Parent discussion will center on effective discipline strategies.

Wednesday, September 10th, 4:30 - 6:30 PM

Parent discussion will center on nurturing resilience in a trauma-informed space.

Thursday, September 11th, 8:00 - 10:00 AM

Parent discussion will center on effective discipline strategies.

Class Without Separation Time:

Friday, September 12th, 9:00 - 10:30 AM

Parents, children, and teachers spend this entire class time together. Children get to play and explore in our beautiful early childhood classroom like usual, but also have an opportunity to create a special art project alongside their parents, inspired by a story we read together in class.

Hello Winona-Area Families! If you have a child in kindergarten or younger, we'd love to meet you at Goodview Elementary next week (9/8-9/12)! Winona ECFE is for all families, not just for those attending WAPS. If you're looking for a great way to build your family's community in Winona, please come see us during one or all of these classes next week (for free)! Find the fit that works for you! Snacks are provided for children. All children from birth through kindergarten are welcome. Children who are not yet one and walking stay with parents during our time together. There's no need to register or sign up for these classes between 9/8 and 9/12, but please reach out to Jen or Lynnea if you have any questions! Bring your friends!

507-494-0913

lynnea.pfohl@winona.k12.mn.us
<https://ec.winonaschools.org/ecfe>
jennifer.slinkman@winona.k12.mn.us

Classes With Separate Parent Discussion:

Parents, children, and teachers play together for the first half hour, and then go into separate rooms for the remaining time. Children play, create, move, and explore with an early childhood teacher. Parents connect in a group with a planned discussion facilitated by a parent educator.

Monday, September 8th, 5:00 - 7:00 PM

Parent discussion will center on effective discipline strategies.

Wednesday, September 10th, 4:30 - 6:30 PM

Parent discussion will center on nurturing resilience in a trauma-informed space.

Thursday, September 11th, 8:00 - 10:00 AM

Parent discussion will center on effective discipline strategies.

Class Without Separation Time:

Friday, September 12th, 9:00 - 10:30 AM

Parents, children, and teachers spend this entire class time together. Children get to play and explore in our beautiful early childhood classroom like usual, but also have an opportunity to create a special art project alongside their parents, inspired by a story we read together in class.

